

First USNORTHCOM Deputy Commander Retires May 27

Advisory

First USNORTHCOM Deputy Commander Retires May 27

Posted May 24, 2004 at 3:20:PM MDT

PETERSON AIR FORCE BASE, Colo. ? Lieutenant General Edward G. Anderson III, United States Army, will retire on May 27 at Fort Carson, Colorado Springs, Colorado. Lieutenant General Anderson is the first Deputy Commander, United States Northern Command, and Vice Commander, U.S. Element, North American Aerospace Defense Command, headquartered at Peterson Air Force Base, Colorado.

Lieutenant General Anderson will be available to the media for several minutes after the ceremony to reflect upon his career and offer his thoughts upon the occasion of his retirement. The ceremony begins at 1 p.m. Interested media should meet U.S. Northern Command and Fort Carson Public Affairs representatives in the parking lot adjacent to Fort Carson's Gate 1 (the main gate) at 12:15 p.m. on May 27. Please RSVP no later than noon on May 26 to NORAD-U.S. Northern Command Public Affairs at (719) 554-6889.